Right: A painting by Christopher overlooks a vintage farmhouse table; old jars serve as vases.

Below: The Boot Room features vintage military prints from a Paris flea market alongside coats, hats, and boots for every kind of weather. The limestone flooring came from a quarry on the farm.

Opposite, top: The living room's chesterfield sofa and lampshades boast Robert Kime fabrics. The pillows are made from vintage and Claremont fabrics. Vintage photos, a family crest, and artworks by Hugo Guinness and Christopher Brooks hang on the wall; Ginger the dog rests by a radiator.

Far right, bottom: Counters of reclaimed mahogany top pine cabinetry in the kitchen. The range is by Lacanche, and the brass sink fittings are by Barber Wilsons & Co.
