EDDIE ROSS
DOES SCOTT
ANTIQUES

it now sprawls over nearly 14,000 square feet. Light fixtures—geometric, modern, industrial—and upholstered armchairs are particular strengths, though owner Jimmy Stanton has always had a knack for accessories of the moment, such as framed slices of agate and white porcelain urns. Also check out his smaller boutique at 1044 North Highland Avenue. • 1190 Huff Road, 404-351-3890, stantonhomefurnishings.com

STEVE MCKENZIE'S

From colorful Blenko glass to R. Wood pottery and Mitchell Black's graphic black-and-white china, the tabletop selection shines even brighter in this store's new location near Miller Union restaurant. But don't let the serveware distract you too much; there's still elegant Grange wooden furniture and finely tailored upholstery and textiles by the store's namesake artist, whose studio is upstairs. • 999 Brady Avenue, 404-618-0422, stevemckenzie.com

SWITCH MODERN

You'll never find a knockoff here. This is as close as Atlanta gets to Milan, with iconic modern brands like Flexform, Edra, and Poliform. Venture all the way to the back of the expansive Midtown showroom for outdoor furniture by Gandia Blasco and accessories by Kartell, Alessi, and the surrealist French company IBride. • 670 14th Street, 404-605-0196, switchmodern.com

TOWNHOUSE

VERDE HOME

Verde Home features environmentally friendly custom furniture, rugs, lighting, and accessories. Wood pieces come from sustainable forests, with organic upholstery certified by the Forest Stewardship Council. Co-owner Laura Walker Baird collects antiques and upcycles natural materials into art. • 999 Brady Avenue, 678-927-9113, verdehomeinc.com

WESTSIDE MARKET ANTIQUES & INTERIORS

The vintage side of this 26,000-square-foot warehouse, launched in 2013, keeps getting better—with quirky midcentury finds, original art, and classic European antiques. And now the "new" side, formerly Westside Foundry, is a collective as well, featuring mostly new furniture curated by some top names in Atlanta design. There are now some 85 vendors, and the market's blog and online shop are expanding its reach. • 1530 Ellsworth Industrial Drive, 404-941-3466, westsidemarketatl.com

OUTDOOR FURNITURE

AUTHENTEAK

So much more than teak. The 15,000-square-foot showroom features more than 100 sets of outdoor furniture, plus kitchens, fire pits, grills, rugs, fabrics, and accessories. Yes, there are even weatherproof televisions. • 1094 Huff Road, 404-525-1995, authentek.com

CASUAL IMAGE

Founded in 1987, Casual Image is a family-owned local source for outdoor furniture, kitchens, fireplaces, and related accessories. Top brands include Lane Venture, Summer Classics, Tropitone, Meadowcraft, Woodard, and Winston. The firm also offers design-and-build services for hardscapes for customers in metro Atlanta. • 1893 Piedmont Road, Marietta, 770-971-5605, casualimage.com

KOLO COLLECTION

Enter this outdoor furniture store through its sister boutique Atlanta Made, which carries gifts, furnishings, and seasonal products created by local artists. Kolo itself, one of the first retail shops in the Westside district, focuses on upscale outdoor furniture and accessories. Here you'll find high-end manufacturers like Brown Jordan, Dedon, Tuuci, and Loll Designs. • 1189 Howell Mill Road, 404-355-1717, kolocollection.com

SUMMER CLASSICS

This Alabama-based company opened its 20,000-square-foot Roswell showroom in 2008. It specializes in high-quality outdoor furniture made of resin wicker, cast aluminum, teak, and iron. The store stocks a wide variety of styles and Sunbrella weather-resistant fabrics that are exclusive to Summer Classics.

• 855 Holcomb Bridge Road, Roswell, 770-998-5555, summerclassics.com
