6 GRIPPING DETAIL

Prevent falls by strategically locating sleek handrails throughout the bath. The stylish design ensures that yesterday's bulky, institutional "grab bars" will never cross your mind. Align, Brantford, and Voss lines (starting at $72) boast a modern look and finish options as well as lengths varying from 12 to 42 inches. Moen; moen.com

7 LIGHT UP

Turn lights on and off with simple motion. Wave your hand near a sensor to activate The Wave Switch ($57 and up). Customize it with a decorative faceplate (starting at $5.50) available in leather, wood, cast metals, and bold colors. Switches fit into your home's existing electrical boxes with no new wiring required. Legrand; legrand.us

8 ON THE RISE

Relish a luxurious soak, no matter your abilities, in this great-looking alternative to a walk-in bathtub. The Elevance Rising Wall Air Bath with BubbleMassage ($11,655) installs in a standard 60-inch tub footprint with a side that lowers for access to a chair-height seat. Air jets massage the body. 9 WIDE OPEN

The Boutique collection solid-surfacing vanity sink has an integrated sink, countertop, and waterfall sides. The 34-inch height is comfortable for all abilities, and the open base accommodates wheelchair users. A variety of configurations and lengths are available, with prices ranging from $1,000 to $3,000. MTI; mtibaths.com
