A Hands-On Education

Leanne Ford Shaffer and Brad Shaffer married, moved into a 1907 Pennsylvania schoolhouse, and kicked off a DIY renovation. Three years later, the honeymoon still isn't over.

A vintage chalkboard and classroom chair reference the home's past. The bar cart was a gift; the couple bought the painted wooden eagle during a trip to Alaska.

A Victoria + Albert tub sits opposite the showers, all finished with fittings from Habitat, a local hardware store. The hanging basket, once used by miners, holds toiletries.

Cutting the second-story crawl space also enlarged the master bath, now appointed with a double shower and a claw-foot tub. The Shaffers widened the window opening, and tiled the floor at a slight slant for drainage.
