The latest in bath décor designed with comfort and glamour in mind

1. Splash of Color Layers of rich green onyx create individual style in this oval bathroom sink from Lenova. The onyx is applied with knife-grade epoxy to a shell made of centuries-old cobbles and then smoothed and polished. Each sink is one-of-a-kind. $665. For a source, 877-733-1098 or www.lenovasinks.com.

2. Luxury & Safety Add a spa feeling to your bathroom with ADA-compliant teak shower seats and matching grab bars and bath mats from Great Grabz. Wall-mounted shower seats, $370 to $528; grab bars, from $294 for a 10-inch bar to $433 for a 42-inch bar; rectangular bath mats with squared or rounded corners, $119. 866-478-4722 or www.greatgrabz.com.

3. High Drama Glamour and fantasy come together in the Majestic line, part of the Snaidero USA Living Collection. An eight-door cabinet, vanity and mirror frame are stainless steel with lacquered and beveled glass exteriors, shown in red and available in 35 other colors. The sink is white lacquered ceramic. Each piece is custom and priced individually. For a source, 877-762-4337 or www.snaidero-usa.com.

4. Shapely Concrete Smooth curves slope down to a custom woven stainless steel drain cover in the Ribbon Sink by Trueform Concrete. The sink sits on a stainless steel base with a built-in towel bar and 13½ inches of flat counter space. Choose from six standard concrete colors and three stainless steel finish options. $3,150 to $6,125, depending on the stainless steel finish. 973-983-7500 or www.trueformconcrete.com.

5. Modern Yet Timeless The Greenwich vanity, inspired by the structures of Gotham, is from the new C.G. Collection by Beverly Hills interior designer Christopher Grubb, president of Arch-Interiors Design Group. The countertop floats on sturdy legs over storage cabinets made of environmentally friendly wood with a zero-emission finish. Countertops and sinks come in various materials. Starting at $2,600. Matching mirrors available. For a source, 310-652-7600 or www.thecgcollection.com.
