

NEW JERSEY'S HOME & DESIGN MAGAZINE

design NJ

APRIL/MAY 2012

HOMES

Designed for Entertaining

Tangerine Tango
(and other hot colors)

The Multigenerational Home: When your parents or adult kids move in Backyard Delights! Ideas for enjoying the outdoors

$4.95 US

05

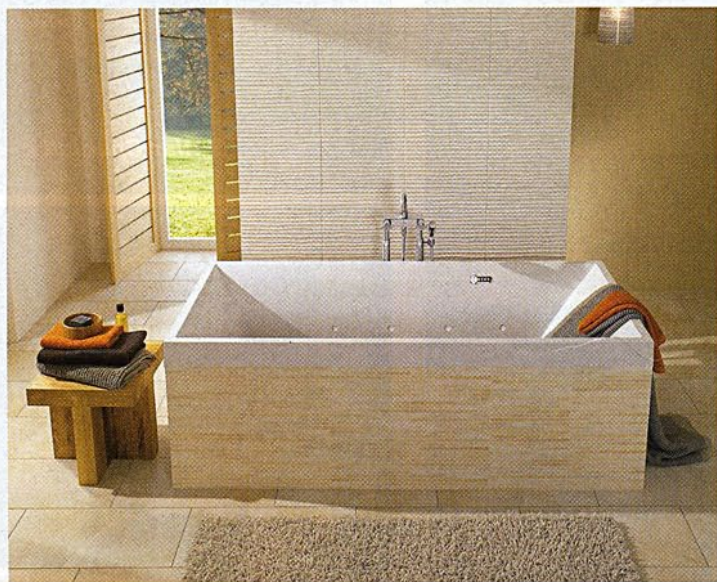

0 09281 01916 9

1

2

3

4

If it's time to replace your generic fixtures, consider a bathtub with foreign flair. Don't be surprised if you start to speak with an accent.

1

For the ultimate in bathroom luxury, the Samara tub by Porcelanosa is natural travertine marble. The free-standing tub is named for the social, political, economic, industrial and cultural center of European Russia. $36,900. PORCELANOSA-USA.COM.

2

Soak your cares away Japanese-style in a hand-hammered copper tub with integrated seat by Premier Copper Products. Copper is an excellent heat conductor so relax and take your time. $9,999. PREMIERCOPPERPRODUCTS.COM.

3

The angular lines of the Squaro tub by Villeroy & Boch speak to its design-conscious German origin. From the Memento collection, the tub is made of Quaryl®, a proprietary material that combines the qualities of quartz and acrylic for durability and easy care. $2,125. VILLEROY-BOCH.COM.

4

The French country-style Piscina drop-in tub from Diamond Spas is crafted of recycled copper with a hand-distressed dark patina. $8,500. DIAMONDSPAS.COM.