

Gulfshore Life

FOR THE BEST OF PARADISE

PARADISE— from Scratch

Inside the process of creating a very special meal at Bleu Provençal

BLACK MAGIC

How Lydia Black has transformed Fort Myers' Alliance for the Arts

OUR FUTURE

the best places
for summer fun

(NOW THAT THE CROWDS HAVE THINNED)

JUNE 2017 $4.95

GULFSHORELIFE.COM

Gulfshore Life

CONNECT

NORMAN LOVE BRINGS MORE THAN CHOCOLATE

Who better to speak the language of love than Norman Love himself?

The acclaimed chocolatier (he's had his confections featured by Oprah and others) has become synonymous with sophisticated sweets in Southwest Florida. The "chocolate and dessert salons"—his version of upscale retail shops, with some room to sit and enjoy the varied truffles, gelato and desserts—have spread throughout our land. But his latest on McGregor Boulevard in Fort Myers has taken his penchant for thinking way outside the chocolate box to new levels.

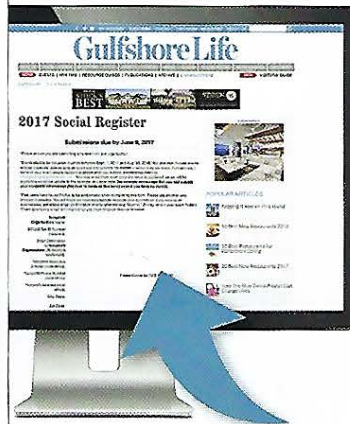

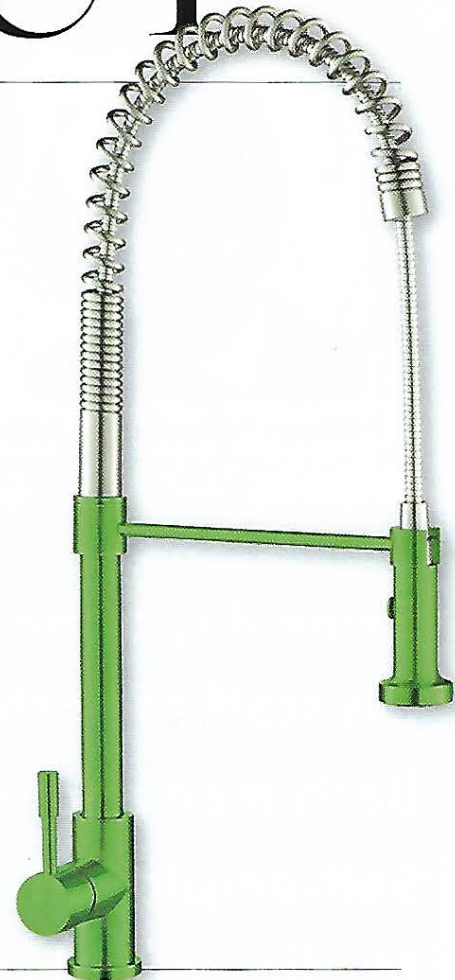

Find out what he's offering there—and get other up-to-the-minute dining news—at gulfshorelife.com in the Hot Dish blog by Dorothea Hunter Sönne.

WHO KNEW FAUCETS COULD BE FUN?

The kitchen needs color, too, right?

Faucets prove the perfect canvas for dazzling polished or brushed metallic finishes in an array of choices: rose gold, stainless, chrome, brass and nickel. Isenberg recently added 20 new surfaces to its Klassiker kitchen collection, including the ceramic-based Greenery, Pantone's color of the year, shown here on the Professo S K-2000 commercial-sized faucet with a chef-style moveable sprayer and the company's signature stainless steel. It's available for $500 at Richlin Interiors, Miromar Design Center, Estero.

For more ways to outfit and adorn your home, follow Nanci Theoret's twice-weekly Design Trends blog at gulfshorelife.com.

LAST CALL FOR 2017 SOCIAL REGISTER SUBMISSIONS

Gulfshore Life is accepting submissions from Collier and Lee County nonprofits for the 2017 Social Register only until Friday, June 9. You can find the free submission form at gulfshorelife.com/social-register. For any questions regarding new submissions or amendments to previous submissions, please email Cayla Childs at charitylistings@gulfshorelife.com. We look forward to your entry!

SIGN UP FOR OUR E-NEWSLETTERS
gulfshorelife.com/subscriptions