HGTV magazine

Pumpkins! Fun designs on p. 27

Quick changes, new looks!

Tips and tricks for speedy makeovers

98 FAVORITE FALL FINDS starting at $10

A kitchen redo packed with ideas

HGTV Star Tiffany Brooks

Colorful bathroom on a budget

Flowers to plant now p. 156

82 pretty pillows in this issue!

#BKBGBZPZ *CAR-RT LOTC-009
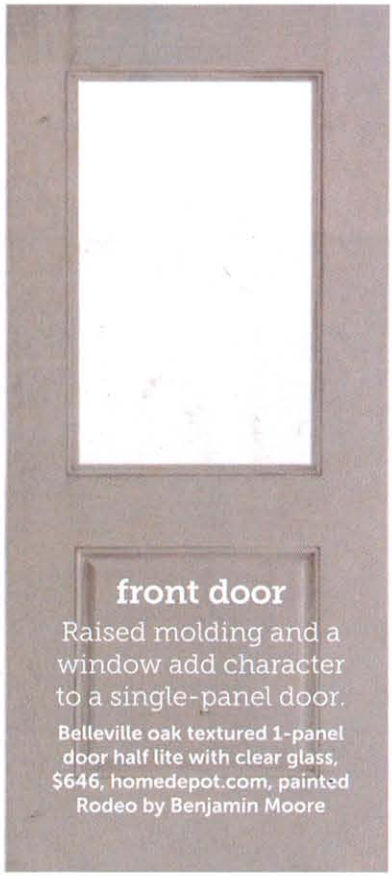
#HGT0833964893/8# 00012 J/A14
LINDA JENNINGS P46
436 WOODLAND DR 0005
SARASOTA FL 34234-3772 4985-4

HOMEOWNERS:
Maryann and Jim McNamara
BUILT IN: 1935
BOUGHT IN: 1986

"The little details of our home delight us the most—the Juliet balcony, the front door with side windows, and the stone walkway."

IDEAS TO STEAL



front door

Raised molding and a window add character to a single-panel door.

Belleville oak textured 1-panel door half lite with clear glass, $646, homedepot.com, painted Rodeo by Benjamin Moore

potted plants

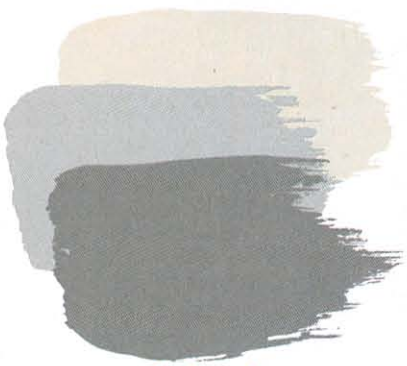
A good combo to perk up your front steps all year: terra-cotta pots filled with, clockwise from top left, tuberous begonia, variegated ivy, and spike plants.

Marchioro 23½"H x 23½"-diameter molded plastic planter in terracotta, $52.50, wayfair.com

flower-wrapped lamppost

This post is solar-powered, and it has a square planter at its base. Pretty!

PSW solar lamppost with 15½" x 15½" planter in white, $155.50, sears.com



paint colors

SIDING AND TRIM:
Spanish White by Benjamin Moore
SHUTTERS: Rodeo by Benjamin Moore
FRONT DOOR: Northern Cliffs by Benjamin Moore

house numbers

These simple house numbers have a clean, classic style that looks great against a white home.

Atlas Homewares traditionalist house numbers, $19 each, thehardwarehut.com

35

Olde Bronze 20" outdoor wall light, $60, destination lighting.com

porch light

A black lantern with clear glass panels is centered above the front porch. It complements other traditional details on the house, including the vintage-inspired hardware on the door.

green landscaping

The McNamaras went easy on flowers and instead chose several varieties of plants, shrubs, and ground cover, including, from left, Sedum 'Autumn Joy,' montgomery blue spruce, and ornamental grasses. The result is a spectrum of greens and lots of texture.