

Home Accents Today

The information source for the home accents industry | vol.23 no.11 | October 2008

HIGH POINT
MARKET ISSUE

Studio | Barbara Cosgrove
While the fierce-looking Impala horns may recall early Viking warriors, they are happily not the real thing. $120 retail

Lynn Raney Fused Distance, a mixed media diptych on panel, evokes an icy winter storm with thick textural detailing. $2,100 each (to the trade only)

Bear Creek Glass Hundreds of hand-blown leaves mingle in an organic extravaganza, effecting the look of a gigantic icicle in frosted glass. $4,000 to $10,000 retail.

Arteriors The distinctively slatted Mercedes chair provokes a contemporary Scandinavian reaction in leather and wood, with a dollop of mid-century. $2,200 retail

Wunderley The pristine pouf in snow-white leather accentuates a super-cool aura with subtle topstitching. $375 retail

ICE PALACE

A crystalline mirage gives rise to visions of a Nordic ski lodge, high-style modern all the way. The striking imagery of ice – sparkling chunks, shimmering splinters or polished smooth as glass – grounds a foundation in rock-solid reality with glass, crystal and gemstones. Knife-edged forms and a masculine vibe create a prismatic palace that's pure delight.

TG Couture | Gary Lee Partners Covered in Wax Linen from Beragamo, the exquisitely sleek Channel sofa cuts a modern-edged, knife-sharp swath. $7,200 retail

Aviva Stanoff Chunks of crystal bejewel these lavishly glam pillows, positively eye-popping against a smoking, silvered backdrop. $150 to $185 retail

Crystal Supper | Baccarat Composed entirely of crystal, the Philippe Starck-designed table captures the ephemeral visage of ice sculpture with breathtaking beauty. $80,000 to $106,700 retail

Hellenic Hand-woven in Greece, the 100% New Zealand wool Flokati rug employs centuries-old techniques to create stunning art for the floor.

Jardin Perdu | Mariposa Gleaming branches adorn an ethereal centerpiece, seemingly hewn from a solid block of ice. $325 retail