

august 2010 hospitalitydesign.com

hospitalitydesign

restaurant heavyweights

new chapter for nobu radical innovation 2010

By Jana Schiowitz

get on the floor

Heading to Hospitality Design Boutique Exposition & Conference (HD Boutique) in South Beach? Check out these products on the show floor September 14-15th at the Miami Beach Convention Center.

Chella Textiles looked to Venetian Murano glassmaking techniques for the design of the newest product for indoors and outdoors, Murano Strie. Made for upholstery, drapery, and pillow applications, the line comes in 16 fresh colors. www.chellatextiles.com

Currey & Company debuts the Garbo Settee. The sophisticated seating is shown here in a Harlow Silver finish and Bunda Macadamia fabric. www.curreyandcompany.com

Brintons' latest collaboration with Scottish designer Timorous Beasties mixes wool and silk and uses a new technical carving process to create a multi-layering effect and go beyond what hand-tufted rugs can usually do. Seven themes make up the collection: Arboresque, Atholl Gardens, Aviary, Paradise Lost, Plantation, This Modern World, and Tree of Life. www.brintons.net

Part of Samuelson Furniture's Delano Collection, the new 4005/7 Complete Bed is offered in cane or mother of pearl inset and in either king or queen sizes. Here, the Complete Bed is shown in the Old World Royale finish, cane inset, and a tufted leather upholstered panel. www.samuelsonfurniture.com

