

hospitality design

december 2016 hospitalitydesign.com

on the rise

the trendspotting issue

HDexpo
© hospitality design event

products bath

By Ashleigh VanHouten

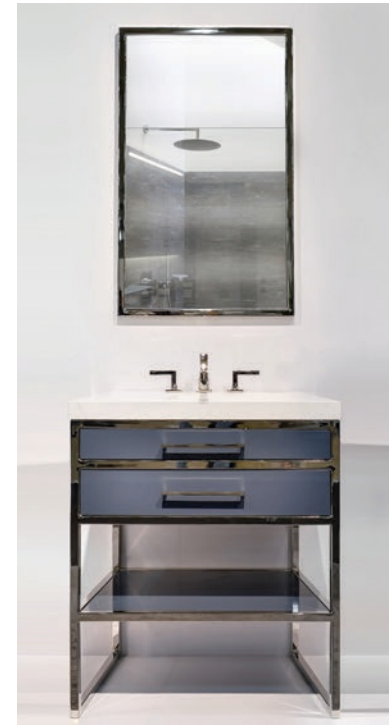

1

2

3

4

1
Duravit adds three mirrors to its new range: the top-edge light field mirror (pictured) provides direct illumination, the ambient light mirror is lit directly from all four sides, and the dual-light mirror includes light fields on the left and right sides.
DURAVIT.COM

2
The Edge bathroom collection from Falper is a sculptural glass unit with a stain-proof satin surface created with nanotechnology.
FALPER.IT

3
The Modern Quartile shower kit from Rohl is sleek and contemporary, with sharp lines and a robust four-sided design built on a cubic template. It is available in polished chrome, polished nickel, and satin nickel finishes.
ROHLHOME.COM

4
The Furniture Guild introduces Winston, a metal vanity featuring a seamless solid brass construction in 25 standard sizes. Each piece is made to order with a range of finishes and interior options available.
FURNITUREGUILD.COM

5

6

7

8

5 Juliet 2 from MTI Baths is a petite version of the larger Juliet freestanding tub. An organic design and fluid lines flow asymmetrically, and features include an integral pedestal and integrated slotted overflow. MTIBATHS.COM

6 Spey is Drummonds' largest freestanding cast iron bath with a deep roll top. The scroll feet option (pictured) creates a contemporary look, while ball and claw feet offer a more traditional aesthetic. DRUMMONDS-UK.COM

7 Alape introduces Twice, a double washstand with two faucets in one basin and a spacious surface for accessories. Made from glazed steel, the vanity is available with or without a base storage cabinet. ALAPE.COM

8 The Bevel collection, from Gamadecor, a Porcelanosa company, combines minimalist and geometric design with a bacteria-resistant Krión solid surface material, and boasts drawers that can be completely removed. PORCELANOSA-USA.COM