1. Blue printed napkins carry the kitchen's palette down to the last detail. 2. A skillful mix of patterns infuses the family room with shades of blue, from soft to cerulean. Chairs, Sarah Richardson Design; games table, John Young Galleries. 3. Pinwheel tiles made of Ming green and Thassos marble bring subtle colour to the kids' Gustavian-inspired bathroom. Tiles, Saitillo Imports. 4. Designers Stuart, Richardson and Smythe (shown) added sparkle in the blue-grey kitchen with glass knobs. 5. Fresh blooms infuse bursts of colour. 6. An antique love seat in the den was the homeowners' lucky find: it actually fit through the room's narrow doorway. Tables, ChairTableLamp. 7. Antique wood storage brings the home's elegant look into the principal bathroom. Tub, Victoria + Albert. 8. Hand-blocked wallpaper with a dancing leaf motif draws the eye up the main staircase. Etchings, Decorative Antiques & Textiles Fair. 9. Brass accents, including the twin beds, provide a grown-up gleam in the son's room. 10. In the daughter's room, a lavender ceiling contrasts softly with the red toile bedspread. Headboard, Sarah Richardson Design.
