Homecoming Season

It's time for a little exterior decorating. These architecture-inspired finds offer a foolproof face-lift for front doors, porches, and stoops, and a lovely mood lifter for you—and your lucky neighbors, too! >>

A Colonial Charmer

European settlers with design sensibilities straight from the old country favored symmetry and puritanical simplicity. Here's a little twist on that.

A Plucky Bungalow

Arts and Crafts-style homes from SoCal to the Great Plains have a tip: A pop of color or pattern is all you need to cozy up your beloved abode.

A Posh Victorian

If you veer toward maximalism, announce it on the porch with a curvy knocker or a Gothic spindle that would make a Brontë sister blush.
