1. The 151 Hassock by Pearson features crewel fabric adorned with whimsical elephants with their trunks turned up for good luck. The layered details of blue chain stitches create a one-of-a-kind look. Crewels hand-stitched such as this one take up to six months to embroider 50 yards. Definitely a room-commanding look. Pearson®. Pearsonco.com.

2. Heather Scott Home & Design's mother of pearl mirror features great curves and edges that will add instant style to your home. The mirror features superb attention to detail. Heather Scott Home & Design. 512.342.6899, Heatherscotthome.com.

3. Rustic and distinctive, these wooden trays and boxes found in South East Asia feature a patina that only years of use and wear can provide. Hopkins Boulevard Import Furniture. 210.375.3138, Hopkinsblvdimports.com.

4. Washed wood finishing and hammered brass details lend the Babylon table lamp by Curry & Company unparalleled sophistication. On trend with the geometric and gold leaf details, the finishing and shape of this lamp possess a timeless quality. Dawn Hearne Interior Design. 512.930.0250, Dawnhearn.com.

5. This fantastic and dramatic oil painting from the 1970s is framed in light wood to compliment the vibrant and clear colors. White Scence. 512.201.8017, Whitescence.com.

6. Stand in the sweet spot between old and new with Ergo cabinet hardware from Atlas Homewares. The suggestion of exposed fasteners makes this collection perfect for the Urban Farmhouse or Downtown loft. Push Pull Open Close. 512.694.7762, Pushpullopenclose.com.

7. The Bergère chair was the inspiration behind the new line for Philipp Selva Home. Architect Lorenzo Bellini melds elements of wood and leather together seamlessly resulting in a stunning chair with a decidedly modern attitude. Selva. Selva.com.

8. The Twist Light linear chandelier is part of an extensive collection of artisan-made lighting and decorative pieces featuring natural materials fashioned with contemporary flair. Big Grass. 210.735.7999, Biggrassliving.com.
