

UTAH Style & Design

WHAT'S HOT
NOW

11 High Contrast dazzling
black & white rooms

artful Attics

RAW BEAUTY Decorating with reclaimed wood

INVITING ROOMS

Ideas and inspiration for your entire home

Display Until March 31, 2016 $4.95 U.S.
Winter 2016 utahstyleanddesign.com

Glam Slam

In Highland, an evocative mix of trendy and timeless design elements gives a French-inspired home a hit of haute, livable style.

BY BRAD MEE PHOTOS BY WESTIN COLTON

Elegantly paneled columns separate the main hall from the luxurious living room where traditionally styled furnishings mix with modern metals, lively prints and soothing colors. Above, a chandelier reflected in the mirror glitters above the inviting space.

RIGHT: Hanging high above the foyer, a caged sphere chandelier brilliantly accentuates the circular shapes of the ceiling molding and round window.

From shimmering gold and brushed brass to brilliant chrome and sleek nickel, the interior's assorted metals may appear effortless as they recur from space to space, but their dance is carefully choreographed. Rejecting rigid rules, the designers mixed metals in all spaces, tending to employ gold to embellish dresser rooms including the master suite and foyer while fancying silver finishes for more casual areas including the lower level family room and kid's bathrooms. The team also turned to brass and gold to flatter cooler-colored surfaces while choosing icier nickel and chrome to dress warm-toned woods and materials. "Metals offer the opportunity to create depth and tension through the contrast of warm versus cool," Bennett explains. But matching finishes were a no-no. "You have to mix it up with different shades of

In the master bathroom, a freestanding MTI tub sits on a geometrically patterned Calacatta Gold marble floor. Oversized oval custom mirrors framed in antique brass reflect a Visual Comforts Globe Pendant, Arteriors screen and large shower framed in floor-to-ceiling glass.

TOP RIGHT: Crowned quartz knobs from Anthropologie bejewel custom vanities located in the master bathroom.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Symmetry rules in the master bedroom where a gleaming chrome canopy bed by Bernhardt sparkles between two Vanguard chests. A Gisele Chandelier by Oly glows above.