Breathtaking Bamboo // Evolved from a salad bowl at Totally Bamboo, the unique bamboo sink is breaking the mold and intriguing go-green gurus nationwide. This Bamboo Vessel Lavatory Sink is the first—but not the last—of its kind. Craftsmen hand-turn each sink on a large lathe, creating the variety of shapes and sizes available. Hidden Treasure // Flaunting maximalist style cloaked in a minimalist profile, Deca's new Concealed Waste Slab Basin showcases its sleek-lined silhouette while ingeniously hiding the drain from view. Made from finely honed fire clay, the avant-garde bowl conceals the drain behind a small vent located at the back of the basin. Which means the water will disappear while the beauty lingers. Moroccan Mosaic // Create a fabulously different bath or powder room with Kohler's Marrakesh design on its Camber undercounter lavatory and countertop and on its charming Bol faucet. The stunning designs were inspired by Moorish mosaics discovered in a Moroccan courtyard and by artwork in the country's Blue Mosque. Kohler, www.kohler.com. Photo courtesy of Kohler Co.
