A beloved and iconic pattern, Argyle was born in the Scottish Highlands, home of fine whiskey and tartans. This timeless pattern has had many incarnations from the famous Scottish clans of Campbell to great knitwear and golfing gear more popular today.

Designed by Du Verre co-founder, Gina Lubin, Du Verre's Argyle is all texture, sparkle and fun. This simplified version plays on the strong graphic pattern of small diamond shapes. This new collection will look great on cabinetry and furniture whether used as an accent or for an entire kitchen or bath.

The Argyle Collection is offered in three finishes and four sizes of knobs and pulls. Thanks to Du Verre's progressive manufacturing methods, the Argyle Collection of original knobs and pulls is made from environmentally friendly recycled aluminum. As a result, Argyle is compatible with LEED objectives.
