(Denver, CO – May 17, 2017) Make a sophisticated style statement with the new Carré Collection from Grandeur Hardware. Pairing exquisite craftsmanship with exceptional design, this stunning line of interior sets and deadbolts adds a welcome touch of luxury to any décor. The collection is a perfect melding of modern and traditional design with just a touch of Art Deco whimsy. The overall look is both bold and elegant, a luxurious addition to fine homes everywhere.

The Carré Collection emphasizes the beauty of parallel lines with a unique waterfall edge that adds texture and interest. This solid brass collection offers a wide array of options including a selection of beautiful leaded crystal knobs. Like jewelry for your home, Carré hardware adds the perfect amount of sparkle and glamour – enough to catch attention without being overwhelming. A selection of seven flawless finishes completes the look, with options that include Antique Pewter, Polished Brass, Polished Nickel, Satin Nickel, Timeless Bronze, Vintage Brass and Lifetime Brass.

"One of the top selling points of the Carré Collection is its amazing versatility. It complements design aesthetics from contemporary to traditional," said Emma Kane, Marketing Director for Grandeur Hardware. "The edging on the side adds a touch of elevated style, and the variety of choices in finishes and knobs allows our customers to create a custom look to suit their own personal space."

The Carré Collection is available at authorized showrooms nationwide and through select online retailers. For more information about this beautiful collection and a listing of dealers, visit www.grandeurhardware.com.
