GOING SOLO.

New Recessed Basin Collection from Victoria + Albert brings fresh options for bath design.

(Ladson, SC – August 25, 2017) Victoria + Albert is pleased to unveil a new collection of recessed basins that provides even more opportunities to create a beautifully luxurious bathroom environment. Offered in response to rising customer demand, the new basins allow homeowners and designers to create custom vanities to coordinate effortlessly with the rest of the bathroom. The sinks may be paired for a 'his and hers' effect or used individually for an elegant focal point.

Headlining this newest collection are the Lario 100 Solo and Mandello 114 Solo basins. Both sinks had been previously available only as part of Victoria + Albert's vanity furniture collection (thus their new 'solo' designations). Created by renowned design studio Meneghello Paoletti Associati, they bring a sophisticated glamour to any bathroom décor.

A traditional basin with graceful lines, the Lario 100 Solo is influenced by Victorian design with a subtle rim detail that is quite beautiful. It is generously proportioned at 39-3/8" long by 18-7/8" wide by 5-3/4" high. Rounding out the collection is the exquisitely contoured Mandello 114 Solo with its singular shape meant to evoke a water drop as it touches the surface of the water. Measuring just slightly larger, the Mandello is sized at 45-1/8" long by 22-3/4" wide by 7-1/4" high.

Both the Lario and Mandello feature full width tap ledges – perfect for keeping essential soaps and lotions close at hand. Both basins may be countertop mounted or semi-recessed, and deck-mounted with brass-ware for easy cleaning. Like all Victoria + Albert products, both basins are crafted from ENGLISHCAST®, their signature composite of Volcanic Limestone™ and resin that is extremely durable with a high gloss finish.

Victoria + Albert continues to be an innovative leader in the modern bath industry, making it easy to create smartly cohesive bathroom environments with fresh design lines.
