Bathing Beauties

BY TERRI FERRAGUT

Nature will nurture as you immerse yourself, leaving all your cares behind. The travertine "Papillion," by Stone Forest is made in Sante Fe, New Mexico. A natural work of art, it's carved from one block of solid stone. STONE FOREST, stoneforest.com

Kallista won 2018 KBIS honors for Bath Gold and Best of Show for its "Grid" bathroom faucet. Matte black and geometric, the stunning simplicity is a shift from excess to abstraction, creating a work of functional art. KALLISTA, kallista.com

Unprecedented depth created by multi-dimensional graphics creates a deeply layered look of stone from natural landscapes. "Astral Plane" by Crossville Inc. brings nature inward, an important element for today's bathroom. CROSSVILLE, crossvilleinc.com

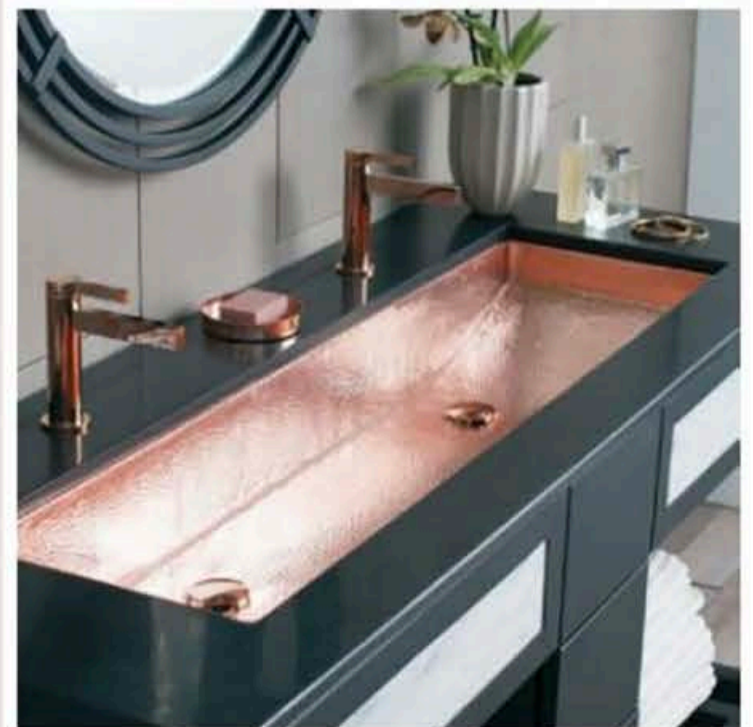

Black creates drama in this Victoria + Albert bath. Inspired by architecture in its namesake city, the Barcelona is compact — perfect for smaller bathrooms. Space beneath the tub conceals plumbing, perfect for remodeling. VANDA BATHS, vandabaths.com

Freestanding tubs are flourishing. BainUltra offers striking design and a luxurious solution to the hassles of modern life with the VIBE. Its hydrothermo massage increases circulation and decreases muscle pain. BAINULTRA, bainultra.com

Metals, hammered or shiny, continue to dominate. This 48-inch double trough in black cabinetry by Native Trails is handcrafted and forged from recycled copper. Functionality, beauty and easy maintenance are achieved. NATIVE TRAILS, nativetrails.net

Inspired by the dark midnight sky, the "Coventry" knob by Grandeur Hardware adds sophistication to any room. The Soleil plate in vintage brass and porcelain knob is assembled by hand in the US. GRANDEUR HARDWARE, grandeurhardware.com

Bigger than ever for the New Year are sinks in bright metallics, hammered finishes, intricate details and gold. Sink manufacturers like Kohler have owned this for years. Inspired by Old World art, Kohler's "Mille Fleurs" captures the delicate artistry of rosemaling and tapestry. KOHLER, kohler.com

Rustic elegance reigns. This Native Trails rectangular trough made naturally of cement and jute fiber is surprisingly lightweight and plays a heavy-duty and stunning role in the bathroom. Available in ash, slate and pearl colors. NATIVE TRAILS, nativetrails.com

Wall-hung toilets are a beautiful design statement plus a space saving element if you need to save precious floor area in a smaller bathroom. Easy to clean beneath the bowl, this is a perfect solution for small bathrooms and powder rooms. KOHLER, kohler.com
