5. Ganesha from Architex

Named after one of the most popular and worshipped gods in Hinduism, Ganesha is the latest newcomer to Architex's Authentec line. It's thick, elephant-like grain is durable and constructed in 100% vegan leather. Paired with the introduction of new colors to Authentec mainstays, Pelle and Classic, this updated line features a variety of grains and colors. architex-ljh.com

6. Porto Bench from Stance Healthcare

Porto benches were designed for healthcare and behavioral health environments. The contemporary style is available in a two- or three-seat configuration with solid surface and power/USB options. An optional solid surface center table and custom frame finishes are also available. stancehealthcare.com

7. Knit from Fabric and Steel

Knit is an up-and-coming fabric collection from Fabric and Steel. The cozy textile is designed by Michele Dopp, who worked with weavers in Belgium to develop the new line. The textured fabric focuses on quality and craftsmanship and is meant to last a lifetime. Knit is offered in blue, beige and ivory, and will be available in December. ### 8. Infinity Wall Mount Faucet from Isenberg

The Infinity Wall Mount Faucet frames the side of a mirror before angling away from the wall to create a waterfall effect. 34 inches tall, the faucet may be installed to the left or right of the mirror. A hidden aerator allows for easy cleaning and helps achieve the sleek, minimalist look. Available in traditional metallic finishes, along with Isenberg's 20 ceramic-based finishes.
