Wall-Worthy FIXTURES AND FEATURES

From floating vanities, storage cabinets and faucets, wall-mounted fixtures in the bathroom are a growing trend and we are loving it! It offers a sleek, clean look and besides freeing up floor space in these typically tight quarters, it makes cleaning a breeze.

Exposed hardware & piping is happening

Starting with a solid block of stone, the Ventus Wall Hung Sink is expertly carved and honed into a thin-walled basin with linear horizontal surfaces. The Ventus Wall Hung Sink is available in sleek, minimalistic Antique Gray Limestone or classic Carrara Marble and is supported by new matte-black, aged-brass or polished-nickel hardware with knurled fittings.

VENTUS WALL HUNG SINK, starts at $3,202; Taps Wholesale Bath Centre

A hidden aerator allows for easy cleaning and helps achieve a sleek, minimalist look.

SHOW-STOPPING FAUCET

This spectacular faucet frames the side of the mirror before angling away from the wall to create a beautiful waterfall effect. The Infinity Faucet brings a unique sculptural vibe with elegant geometric lines and an array of exquisite finishes to choose from. Measuring 34" in total height, the Infinity Wall Mount Faucet may be installed to the left or right of the mirror, making it a perfect choice for symmetrical dual vanities.

INFINITY FAUCET by Isenberg, starts at $2,000US; available at Faucet Mart in Concord

RECYCLED & RADIANT

Made of 100 per cent recycled glass, specifically industrial glass and glass bottles, Magna Recycled Glass Slab was developed using "a crystallization course," where parts of the production is done by hand. This technique allows for a translucent optic with a crystal-like brilliance when shone upon by light. Each slab is different, but always maintains a full recycled-glass composition.

MAGNA RECYCLED GLASS SLAB starts at $64.35 per sq. ft.; Surfaces & Co.
