

hospitality design

marketplace fall 2019 hospitalitydesign.com

swept away 100+ products

products bath

The bathroom gets a luxe upgrade

By Matt Dougherty

1

2

3

4

5

6

1
American Olean's glazed porcelain Ideology series combines classic white marble with a contemporary design in three colors: vein-cut Calacatta, Lasa, and Carrara. Larger sizes and geometric mosaic tile options allow designers to insert marble veining.
AMERICANOLEAN.COM

2
The Metropolis wall-mount sink from MTI Baths boasts a streamlined design that delivers a strong architectural presence. Constructed with the company's proprietary SculptureStone, the non-porous surface is durable, resistant to stains and scratches, and easy to clean.
MTIBATHS.COM

3
Taking cues from industrial factory windows and Japanese shoji doors, Gridscape from Coastal Shower Doors, an addition to the Eclipse series, resembles a classic barn door with modern details, including a black-finished frame and customizable glass styles.
COASTALSHOWERDOORS.COM

4
Expanding on its Artist Edition collection, Kohler introduces Kenso sinks, which feature Eastern motifs and textile patterns inspired by nature and minimalist designs. Two styles, including a round vessel and trough, are offered.
US.KOHLER.COM

5
Duravit partnered with Sieger Design on the futuristic Viu collection of ceramics and XViu furniture line. The industrial elegance of the series emerges from the interplay of soft, organic forms and the precise geometry and finished details.
DURAVIT.US

6
The wall-mount or vanity-top porcelain Aquatto sink from Lacava features an overflow and decks on each side, and comes in one-, two-, and three-faucet hole options, as well as one with none.
LACAVA.COM