A FRESH APPROACH TO HOME & LIFE

THE Winter
ISSUE

BainUltra, leaders in wellness created this collection of therapeutic freestanding bathtubs with minimalist and contemporary flair. The VIBE is designed to fit in smaller installations without compromising the quality, comfort, and ergonomics of a therapeutic bath. Rest your mind, body and your spirit in this expertly crafted bath. bainultra.com

Our winters can chill one to the bone, especially here in the Northland, but this situation can be easily remedied by one simple event...a warm, relaxing bath or shower. All year-round, day-in and day-out, our bathrooms remain a sacred space, a momentary place of solitude, an area that we can claim for just ourselves.

Our bathrooms bookend our days, setting the stage with fresh energy and waiting for our return home to create rejuvenation and relaxation.

Think about it — some of our most profound ideas come to us in our showers. Perhaps you rehearse that big presentation you're giving later that day or entertain thoughts of a job interview. Our bathrooms are a safe place in which we enjoy a moment of solitude to relax with a hot shower or a nice warm bath. Creating or remodeling a bathroom that is individualistic, one that perfectly

LESSON IN GEOMETRY

Rose gold in the unique tile shapes of the Cursive Collection brings an eclectic handmade appearance with a watercolor effect. Nine trending colors including notable hues of Iris, Goldenrod and Rose Gold create unique and inspiring patterns of geometric shapes. crossvilleinc.com

CRYSTAL CLEAR BEAUTY

Add extra sparkle with this clear crystal hardware set by Viaggio. Its multifaceted surface reflects a warm glow in a dazzling prismatic effect. Inspired by the iconic architecture of Milan and northern Italy, its hardware set is on a solid brass foundation. viaggiohardware.com

A CALMING ADDITION

The Curve, a new design perspective on bathroom faucets, is simply elegant, and the look is refined and modern. Water streams through the curved linear spout to culminate in a beautiful waterfall effect that is calming. Touchless technology makes it easy to control the water flow.
