DIVINELY NEUTRAL

PREMIER LOCATION AND VIEW FOR THIS WARM AND INVITING NEUTRAL PENTHOUSE AT BLVD

Guest Bathroom: Behind the wall-hung toilet is a dainty Constantine mosaic tile in the Galahad-Icelandic colorway from Design Works. The tile flows to the shower and down the opposite wall, accenting Construct's leather-look, charcoal, and gray-brown tile. The sleek, modern lines of the Petra Boutique Collection tub from MTI offset the warmth and organic grain lines on the French walnut vanity.

Guest Bedroom: "The blend of the white marble and the woven-look wallcovering creates a natural elegance, in keeping with the genre of the whole home," delights Lucas. The white marble nightstands from Noir rest beside the clean-lined bed from Modloft atop the cozy, shag Chandra area rug. The Designheure chandelier Mozaik in duck blue delightfully contrasts the striking Noa-L Tanzania Wine woven wood-look wall tile from Porcelanosa, which evokes a rustic feel.

Outdoor Living: The neutral palette of this rooftop deck sits against the bustling view of Sarasota and the Bay beyond and is the definition of stunning natural elegance. The umbrella and end table are from Dedon, and Lucas drapes the outdoor sofa in durable Dune fabric and adds a complementary light bronze structural element to finish it off. A rectangular fire table from Architectural Pottery in dark charcoal contrasts this otherwise serene palette.
