Vessel basin looks good from every angle

ACQUABELLA brings the beauty of nature into the bathroom with the Stelvio oval vessel basin. Its singular textured surface mimics the intricacy of a sparkling multi-faceted diamond or the natural cuts of a mighty iceberg, creating the effect of a geometric prism or delicate biodome. As the centerpiece of any design space, Stelvio is built to look good from every angle. It measures 22 inches long by 15 inches wide and 6 inches deep, providing ample space for daily bathing rituals.

Vanity collection stands out in bathroom

The JEFFREY ALEXANDER vanity line from Hardware Resources expands its product offering to include the new Kipling vanity collection. Featuring a blend of timeless Shaker aesthetics with modern functionality, the collection is a standout choice for any bath. Elevated design details such as dovetail drawers and hardwood tip-out trays add to the functional elegance of the collection. It's available in four on-trend finishes and in 30-, 36-, 48- and 60-inch dual sink options.
