FLIGHTS OF FANCY

Where the Art and Design Worlds Are Traveling Now

ISLAND BREEZE

At a Martha's Vineyard home conceived by interior designer Mark Cunningham and architect John B. Murray, elevated style is infused with a seriously easygoing spirit

*By Vicky Lowry
Photography by Eric Piasecki*

In the primary bath, which is lined with Taj Mahal quartzite from BAS Stone, a painting by Michele Fletcher is mounted above an MTI Baths tub. OPPOSITE, FROM TOP: A Francesco Balzano bench from the Invisible Collection stands at the foot of the primary suite's Marked bed, which is dressed with E. Braun linens, a Frette coverlet, and pillows in a Schumacher fabric; Mark Albrecht Studio sconces complement the Holly Hunt nightstands. Cunningham designed the TV room's built-in sofa with a window nook where he hung a Hiroshi Sugimoto seascape photograph.
