Recessed showerheads create retreat

CALIFORNIA FAUCETS introduces the spa-inspired Rainscape Shower Collection with four sleek, flush-mount showerheads that produce distinctly different streams of water. The collection includes a generous 14-inch Rainshower, which offers a soothing downpour of relaxation, plus three rectangular showerheads with flow variations to suit any showering style. The ceiling-mounted showerheads may be used individually, or in larger showers, they can be combined. | calfaucets.com

Stylish sink designed for everyday use

DURAVIT presents the Sivida Sink designed by Philippe Starck, a stylishly simple yet suitable feature for everyday use. Its unique matte green color is available in a two-toned combination that creates a striking accent. Made with DuroCast, a durable and eco-friendly solid surface material, the Sivida sink features a velvety smooth look and feel and low-maintenance design. Available in square or round shapes, it suits a range of bathroom styles and offers high quality.

Japanese-style tub brings bath luxury

MTI BATHS unveils Emi, a new Japanese-style soaking tub that honors the original Ofuro form. Crafted from SculptureStone material, Emi is made from natural ground minerals to create an extraordinary tub with a luxurious look and softly organic feel. SculptureStone is completely solid and homogeneous from the surface all the way through. It is dense, consistent and non-porous, resulting in a tub that is incredibly durable, impressively hygienic and easy to maintain.

Bath vanities reflect design trend

SONOMA FORGE partners with natural wood furniture maker Littlebranch Farm to create a series of bath vanities that speak to the "rustic luxury" design trend. Characterized by the use of natural materials to create a soothing sense of calm and serenity, the trend merges raw, organic textures with refined craftsmanship to create timeless, artisanal spaces. The result is a selection of one-of-a-kind vanities that bring a sense of warmth and grounded elegance into today's bath interiors.
